game. The Rev. Dr. Hondley of the Greenwich Presbyterian Church offered prayer and after the collection had been taken up it was announced that the amount given yesteday was 11,445.

"Jesus Christ had a hard time of it on this earth," Billy began.
"We treat saloonkeepers better han he was treated, and if he ame back to-day he'd get.

"A fellow won't slip on the save to work that they get.

"Think of that father, with his boy just delivered from the power of the devil, paying 25 cents per year far missions. Think of him sitting in the prayer simply because you want to bribe God and think he will hear it."

Sunday did not call for trail hitters this afternoon, but said in all likelihood he would do so to-night.

The glad this lesson was not left out of the Bible. If it had been left out of the Bible. If it had been left out of the Bible. If the heave known that the disciples could fall. The disciples were just common flesh and blood—the same as we are.

Reverting to his sermon, Billy declared some of the biggest devils on earth sit in church pews and navtheir name in the registers. "When Jesus came down from the Mount of Transfiguration with Peter, James and John," said the evangel ist, "and reached the valley below be saw the remainder of the disciples surrounded by a multitude of people questioning thom. There were the ethical culturists, the highbrows of the day; the Pharisees, who were the hypocritical churchy knockers; the Sadducees, who were the heretics and higher critics. "As Jesus came nearer he noted a "-ther who had brought his little boy, who was possessed of an evil spirit which had thrown him in fire and water, had caused him to have convulsions and made him to fall or the ground and gnash his teeth and foam at the mouth. The disciples had each tried to drive it out, but all had failed.

"Now notice. First, the disciples thought they had a big crowd around them. But what did it matter if there was a big crowd and there was no devil cast out? That's the trouble with many to-day. They think that God isn't within ten miles o a meeting unless there is a big

"There are some of you right her to-day that have the devil in you Maybe you don't treat your wife square. Maybe you cheat in your weights. Get rid of the devil.

"What does it matter if you pack a church to the roof if nothing happens to turn the devil pale? What is the use of putting chairs in the aisles if there is no devil to chase down the aisles and out the doors?

"The object of the church is to cas: out devils. I hope God will never let me forget that there is somebody in . every one of my audiences, big or small as they may be, he wants no
